The 2018 Annual meeting was well attended with 40 volunteers and supporters. Annemarie (Salvation Army) said grace and we enjoyed a meal together. Wendy Davison of CAP, our keynote speaker spoke of the work CAP is doing to help those in debt in our community and of the interdependence between CAP and Larne Foodbank. Alex Munro (LFB Chairman) then gave an overview of Larne Foodbanks plans for the incoming year, and thanks for the work of so many for the year 2017/18. Since we began in 2013 Larne Foodbank had provided for over 4000 clients 42% of whom were children. Thanks go to :-

- the Sorting Team who had weighed and dated over 13 tonnes of stock,
- the Distributions Teams who had met over 1019 clients,
- the Fundraising Team who had raised £4539,
- the volunteers who had packed and delivered 120 Christmas Hampers,
- the Administration Team and the Management Committee who support all in the smooth running of Larne Foodbank,
- all who had donated food and toiletries
- all who had donated financially to the work of Larne Foodbank.

The new committee was elected and a number of changes made to the constitution. All who attended enjoyed a relaxed and informative evening.
